The Graduate Program in Applied Physics
Ph.D. Degree learning Goals and Assessment

The Graduate Program in Applied Physics strives to have students complete degrees that prepare them for careers in their areas of expertise at research institutions, governmental agencies and industry.

Learning Goal 1: Academic scholarship and general expertise in the field of Applied Physics

Learning Goal 2: Engage in original research

Learning Goal 3: Career preparation