Abstract: I will describe the “curve shortening flow,” and sketch the proof of the Hamilton-Gage theorem which says that a convex curve in the plane will evolve into a round circle just before it disappears.

Wednesday, September 20
2:30 - 3:30 pm
204 Smith Hall
Please note special time